El objetivo que persigue este libro es proporcionar una antología comprensiva de trabajos académicos de investigación escritos por profesores y profesionales dedicados al mundo del cine, a su enseñanza y difusión en las aulas. Los colaboradores de este volumen han tratado en sus obras o en su investigación el tema de la migración en España desde una multiplicidad de perspectivas: históricas, antropológicas, sociales, políticas, lingüísticas y personales. Este libro ofrece también un valioso material informativo para aquellos profesionales y académicos interesados en el discurso fílmico/documental/medios de comunicación de la migración como realidad social y humana, con el fin de promover un entendimiento más profundo y riguroso sobre la conceptualización del debate de la migración en el mundo globalizado de hoy en día. Además, el presente volumen cuenta con la colaboración especial del director de cine Llorenç Soler que ha tratado en sus filmes la realidad social y política de la inmigración en España. Finalmente, este libro analiza aquellas películas que han narrado el drama de las migraciones a través de sus imágenes, diálogos, y personajes, retratando una época o un momento específico en la sociedad española contemporánea.
