En defensa de la vida. Alegato contra la pena de muerte (Spanish Edition) Manuel Iglesias Cabero

El tema relacionado con la pena de muerte es sumamente complejo y enrevesado y, como en la totalidad de los problemas de esta envergadura ha concitado la atención y el análisis de intelectuales, políticos y cineastas, y las opiniones han estado y están divididas entre simpatizantes y detractores de este tipo de penas. El autor de este trabajo se decanta abiertamente en favor de la defensa de la vida y de la reprobación de la pena que tiene por finalidad la eliminación de este derecho fundamental de las personas. Para ello se exponen de manera sistematizada las distintas corrientes de opinión que tal medida concita, tanto desde el punto de vista ontológico como del pragmático, porque a los argumentos de ambas especies acuden las opiniones al respecto. Los datos estadísticos ponen en evidencia que la aplicación de la pena de muerte no asegura el final de los ataques criminales, ni siquiera de los más atroces, que en todo tiempo han roto la pacífica convivencia social. La reseña histórica de la pena de muerte se remonta a los tiempos de los que se tienen noticias fidedignas, como el Código de Hammurabi, con una antigüedad próxima a los dos siglos anteriores a nuestra era, pasando por las culturas griega, romana y los distintos episodios que ha superado el sistema español hasta la total abolición de la pena de muerte con la entrada en vigor de la Constitución de 1978.
