Tra le rose e gli ulivi (Irene) (Italian Edition) Sergio Toffolo

Tra le rose e gli ulivi è un libro di amicizia, di amore, e di storia italiana. In una Treviso di fine anni '70 due amici Flavio e Marco decidono di realizzare un giornale locale. Flavio, proveniente da una famiglia benestante contadina andata in disgrazia dopo il boom economico italiano, e Marco, nipote della grande famiglia trevigiana Manin resa nota e ricca per essere stata il braccio mediatico all'interno del ventennio fascista. Da qui ha inizio questa storia all'interno della quale entrerà presto l'amore e tutto ciò che ne consegue. I due conosceranno Maria Billè proveniente da una famiglia immigrata dal sud durante gli anni 50. Mentre il giornale fondato dai due amici "Controtendenza" continua ad aumentare il numero delle tirature, Marco e Flavio vivono le tensioni e disillusioni tipiche del mutamento delle condizioni storiche italiane. Per i due amici arriverà il momento di separarsi e di intraprendere nuove e difficili strade della vita. Un libro intenso, vero che racconta l'Italia e l'amore con fiera crudezza.
