A little uncivil disobedience is good for the soul...

Gaia Jones is on A-Ki space station for one reason, and it's not to ogle the hermaphroditic aliens. She's out to make a name for herself and her line of intoxicating human snacks. Not easy in A-Ki's tightly controlled society. Her task gets even more delicate when she rushes to the aid of a dying alien—and finds herself the unwilling guardian of a shunned alien ghost named Kenjan. And the new owner of his slave.

The danger mounts when Kenjan's grieving lover, the powerful leader of the Kishocha, offers her a dream and a nightmare rolled into one: a new store all her own with a strange double purpose—half snack bar, half shrine. The catch? She must spend the rest of her life there, tending Kenjan the Heretic's ghost. Or the entire station will be destroyed.

There's only one way to gain both her freedom and justice for Kenjan—teach both the powerful government elite and the Kishocha theocracy a lesson in uncivil disobedience...

Sheri Combs:

As a university student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and also can't see colorful photos on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Happy Snak can make you truly feel more interested to read.
