“On Monday Mrs. Hubbub’s class was getting out of line. She told them to behave or they would all turn into swine.” But her students do not listen. As they become more rude and rowdy, their hands turn into hooves and their noses turn into snouts! So the school nurse calls in a specialist—the Pig Lady, who recognizes the problem immediately. With her help, the children begin to recall and recite proper manners. “Every time I’m picked on, it makes me feel so small. So don’t make fun of anyone. Don’t bully or name-call.” As the students come to realize their mistakes, their tails, snouts, and hooves begin to disappear. Before long, yucky habits are dropped and hurt feelings go away.
