Book 3 in the Werewolves of Malta series. The Malta Werewolves have barely settled in the Colorado Rockies and already surrounding packs want them out. No one trusts Malta Werewolves, and to make matters worse, Malta Werewolves don't trust each other. They truly will be extinct at this rate. Tired of a life on the run, Erin Spalto is out of control. She is beautiful, tempting and absolutely not the right female for Juan Anthony. When she pushes her luck too far one day, Juan realizes that no matter her wild nature, he must protect her. However, protecting leads to having, and with each taste, Juan must have more. Juan wants Erin, but being Dante Aldo's half-brother is a major downfall when Erin's den believes Dante responsible for the burning of their pack on Malta. Their dens' feud comes to a head as the men struggle for dominance and power. As blood is drawn, the two lovers may have to fight harder than they thought possible for each other and for the survival of their pack.
