The Paper Trail Jonathan S. Bush, Aspatore Books Staff

The Paper Trail, written by Jonathan S. Bush (athenahealth, CEO and Chairman), focuses on issues such as the future of the health care industry, clinical trials, drugs, medical records, privacy, education, HIPAA, and the ever-lasting effects the Internet and technology will have. This chapter features "real world intelligence" knowledge excerpts on the health care industry and is a great quick read summarizing the future of health care and the major topics currently affecting health care professionals. The chapter also features proven strategies practiced by this executive that can be altered or adapted upon for your own business. An insider's look inside the world of the health care industry makes for exciting and highly interesting reading for every health care professional, pharmaceutical professional, doctor, medical student, patient and anyone interested in the future of health care and how they can take advantage of the opportunities on a personal or professional level. This chapter originally appeared in the book Inside the Minds: The New Health Care Industry, also published by Aspatore.
