Finding Seams On Apples is a compilation of wit, intelligence and fervour of an online cricket community, and one of the largest cricket forums, cricketweb.net. The 30,000 members, from all over the world and from all walks of life, are bound together by the love of cricket. The forum itself has more than three million posts and the book presents a series of honest and open discussions, and at times heated arguments, about cricket topics and events. Some comments will make you laugh, some will get you thinking, and others will take you back in time to relive favourite moments from cricketing history.
