THE GREEK TYCOON'S UNEXPECTED WIFE (Harlequin comics) Annie West

Four years ago, Tessa was trapped in South America with no way out. In order to save Tessa, a complete stranger had to marry her to smuggle her out. Tessa had no way to thank the man who saved her life because he died protecting her...or did he? After seeing an article about Stavros Denakis four years later, Tessa was determined to give her savior back his family ring. All she had for Stavros was gratitude, but he was suspicious of the convenient timing of her arrival—during his engagement party. he figures out what's going on, he decides to keep Tessa under watch on his estate. But the more time he spends with her, the more he's reminded of why he helped her in the first place all those years ago...
