Dolphin Dreams Annette Mahon

Jade Kanahale has a great family, a brand new degree, a new condo, and her dream job--marine behaviorist at Dolphin Life Research at a resort in west Hawaii. What more could a girl want? Her mother presents her with a beautiful heirloom quilt which she claims will help her meet her true love, but Jade has serious doubts until things start to change.

Adam Donovan, whose family specializes in high-end resorts in tropical locations, is in west Hawaii looking into the purchase of the resort which houses Dolphin Life Research. But with his thirtieth birthday rapidly approaching, he's feeling restless and wonders about the path his life has taken. He is impressed with Jade and her sunny outlook on life.

As the two become friends, Jade's positive disposition seems to rub off on Adam, and he begins to view his life and career with new eyes.

And strangest of all, Jade is experiencing some odd dreams, dreams that seem to come when she's sleeping with her antique quilt.
