Amber is deciding on which college to attend, and it just so happens that the man of the house, Kyle, is the only one who can take her. She's excited when she realizes that they will be staying overnight together in the same room. When they get there, they find out there's only one bed! Only her innocence stands in the way, but she soon learns that she doesn't have to make the first move. Kyle claims her that night for the first time, giving her exactly what she has always wanted, hard and without protection.
