When his Uncle Hobart passes away, private eye/actor Sam Ryan must travel to California so that he can support his Aunt Gladys at the reading of the will. But Sam's plans quickly go astray when he meets Marilyn Williams, a stunningly gorgeous model who wants to hire him. Before Marilyn can explain her case, she is found dead-and Sam is the number one suspect. With nothing but a few brief words from Marilyn and a mysterious golden key she left in his possession, Sam has no choice but to solve the murder if he wants to clear his own name. It won't be easy, especially when he knows so little about the model's original case. But someone has already made it clear they are prepared to kill to keep this secret, and Sam, and everyone close to him, is in danger until he can find the model's true killer.
