Meet Xavia, young, independent queen raised by the hood. She's known to the world by X since her daddy held the hood in his hand he made sure the hood always held her down.

Yeah she was spoiled, but she made moves on her own. She was nothing like the girls she hung with. Her best friends was two girls that was all about using sex for power. Many would look at the two of them and think X was just like that.

Meet Oz known in the hood for being on the come up. A young rapper that was trying to put on for his city, but his past life still existed. The shows he booked wasn't enough to support his life style so he dabbled in street life. His names ring bells for music so he knew the girls in the city was trying to trap him.

On an outing to the club, when O runs into X, the two's chemistry is out of the world. What O wanted to be an one night stand turns into him falling for her. But in his eyes she isn't any different from the rest of the girls from the hood. X has to prove that she's different, but will her dad's lifestyle stop her happiness? Will her group of friends be the reason she loses out on love?
