The Mystery of the Sea

Bram Stoker

The Mystery of the Sea Bram Stoker

In his seventh novel Bram Stoker of "Dracula" fame combines adventure, mystery, romance and the supernatural into a world where both mystery and science can exist side by side. In 1902, the New York Tribune wrote:

"A great treasure of the Armada, hidden in a sea cave and sought not only by the hero but by the descendant of the Spaniard who shipped it, provides a starting point of excitement. A gang of ruthless murderers, thieves, and kidnapers in pursuit of the bewitching American heiress who is the heroine furnish forth enough suspense and terror for three ordinary tales."

Annotated version with additional footnotes.
