Parlando del naufragio (Italian Edition) Niccolò Darnas

Un giovane ufficiale di una nave da crociera, una di quelle navi bianche che portano più di un migliaio di passeggeri a giro per il mondo, è rimasto senza imbarco. La compagnia di navigazione ha inaspettatamente effettuato un taglio del personale a bordo ed egli non sa quando ritornerà a fare il suo lavoro o se, addirittura, la sua professione continuerà ad essere la stessa. Nel corso di una tranquilla sera d'estate trascorsa nell'appartamento in cui è rimasto a vivere da solo, il ragazzo riesce a vincere il limbo di tale situazione d'attesa e incertezza, mettendo nero su bianco le esperienze maturate nei suoi primi anni di navigazione. Lasciando le parole scorrere tra le pagine in un flusso di coscienza dai tanti e inaspettati bagliori, prende vita una scrittura spontanea e piena di freschezza che racconta di indovini, navigatori e persino musicisti blues.
