Little Book of Newcastle United Ian Welch

Having won back the club's rightful status as a Premier League club, the challenge is on to finally deliver a trophy, an event the most passionate football fans in the world have waited far too long to see. Yet the Newcastle United story is littered with moments of magic and medals, as this book perfectly illustrates. From the early League titles to considerable FA Cup success, culminating in that never to be forgotten night in the Fairs Cup, Newcastle United stand among the greats of the English game. The quest is on to bring the real glory days back to St James Park, with the current squad eager to take their place among the legends of Newcastle. Completely revised and updated, this book is perfect for every United fan.
