Anna thought life was going to be awesome. She was right...and wrong.

Won her dream job acting in a hit TV series. Check.

Working with her best friend. Check.

Met the boy of her dreams. Check.

The set's haunted and she's in the middle of a supernatural war. Uh, check?

Anna Rose Ellington is sixteen and living in Hollywood, hoping to be a star. Anna just landed a major role on Ghost House, TeenTV's new fall drama. A show promising to be so hot, Meg Sweet (the reigning teenage diva), signed on for the lead, and Adam Lewis (international rock sensation) is a principal player.

Her dreams are falling into place until she gets on set and she begins to question her sanity. It's true she has an unusual dream life, where once in a while her dreams literally come true. But it's been a while. On top of her dreams not staying put in her brain, including the guy she'd been dreaming of for years, the house they're filming in, Gold Manor, might actually be haunted. But that's the least of her worries.
